DMU Apprenticeships

Apprenticeship Overview

A De Montfort University (DMU), a leading and highly regarded university of the UK, is proud to have a strong reputation for its apprenticeship programme.

We are all committed to working together to ensure that our apprenticeship programme is a safe and successful one, enabling an individual to gain the skills and experience they need to succeed in their career.

We are dedicated to creating a learning experience that provides the highest level of apprenticeship safety and wellbeing.

What is an apprenticeship?

An apprenticeship is a programme that allows you to gain work experience and learn a trade or profession. It is a combination of on-the-job training and classroom learning. Apprenticeships are available in a wide range of industries and professions.

This is a commitment to the safety and wellbeing of all apprentices. We are committed to ensuring that all apprentices are safe and healthy at all times. We are committed to providing a safe and healthy working environment for all apprentices.

In addition, all members of our staff are committed to providing a safe and healthy working environment for all apprentices. We are committed to providing a safe and healthy working environment for all apprentices.

What are the benefits of an apprenticeship?

- You will gain valuable work experience and learn a trade or profession.
- You will be able to earn a salary while you learn.
- You will be able to gain a qualification while you work.

Employer Role

What are the key responsibilities?

Be a role model of health and safety regarding the welfare of children, young people and vulnerable adults.

Understand and have safety training means in practice a health organisation, in the context of the responsibilities the health care professionals have for the people they employ.

Provide a safe, appropriate environment for learning both on and off site.

Ensure appropriate checks are completed in the Disclosure and Barring Service for employees working with vulnerable young people and vulnerable adults.

Where possible, identify a dedicated person to coordinate safety training across the organisation.

Have a suitable reporting procedure in place, including named contact in case of emergency.
